To assure the fullest alumni notification possible, please help by sending this notice to your classmates, as well as to at least one person in the class above you and one person in the class below you. Talk it up as much as you can.

Facebook (www.facebook.com) is a great place to network and notify your fellow classmates. Some Woodrow classes already are set up on Facebook, and that makes it easy to spread the word. If your class is not represented, find someone to set up a Facebook page for your class so you can be in better touch with your classmates.

So far, we've seen the following classes on Facebook: '62-'65, '68, '74, '85, '93, & '95. Other classes may have Facebook pages, too, so look for them! It's easy to join: Go to www.facebook.com, sign in, and search for Woodrow Wilson Alumni Association.
